50+ PROGRAMME

WHAT IS THE FRENCH FOR 50+ PROGRAMME?

This programme is designed for senior students, aged 50 and up, who not only want to improve their French , but also want to spend a pleasant cultural holiday in France enjoying the best of what our region has to offer. This one or two week programme includes 15 hours of French language instruction per week plus 4 afternoon activities per week.

Students will be placed according to the placement test in mixed groups; in the afternoons senior students will participate in special activities designed only for this age group. French in Normandy reserves the right to include other age groups on the transportation to/from activities although the activity itself will be done in the 50+ age group. Where possible French in Normandy will create a closed group of senior students for courses.

ACTIVITIES

Four cultural activities per week are included in this special French for senior students programme.

Activities may include:

- a guided visit to the impressionist gallery
- museum visits
- pastry workshop
- visits to cheese or wine producers
- historical tour of Rouen
- visit to the Joan of Arc Historial
- cruise on the Seine
- visit to Monet's House at Giverny
- trips to Honfleur, Trouville etc.

DISCOVER ROUEN

The city of Rouen is a picturesque medieval city, located in the northwest of France, and is home to over 110,000 people. Approximately 136km away from the city of Paris. Rouen is the cultured, historic, gastronomic, and vibrant capital of Normandy.

Renowned for its iconic cathedral immortalized by Monet, and a plethora of museums, Rouen exudes charm and cultural richness. Its historic quarters, lined with cobbled streets, half-timbered houses, and bustling markets, offer a delightful ambiance for exploration and immersion.

Rouen provides a lively cultural scene including opera, theatre, festivals and events. The city's proximity to the coast and the Normandy beaches offers endless opportunities for exploration and relaxation.

There are many fine restaurants and museums to discover, not to mention the Gros Horloge clock tower, shopping streets, France's oldest inn La Couronne, and the beautiful modern church dedicated to Joan of Arc.

We look forward to welcoming you to Rouen!
