

Academia Tica

The Spanish Language School in Costa Rica

Academia Tica is a private Spanish Language School, one located in Coronado, San José, Costa Rica, and one in Playa Jacó, Costa Rica. Academia Tica is an Associate Center of Instituto Cervantes, as well as accredited by ADES, Spain. The school offers Main or Intensive Spanish Group courses, Private classes, or a Combination of Group and Private classes, all focusing on language, society, and culture. The starting date and duration of the course can be chosen by the student.

Besides the language classes, the school offers Latin American Dance and Food classes, and excursions to Banana/ Coffee Plantations, Volcanoes, Butterfly farms, Canopy tours, and more. All these activities help the students to use their Spanish in activities outside of school. Moreover, the school has a touristic platform where the students can inform themselves about possible weekend trips and what else there is to do around San José or Jacó to experience and see Costa Rica to the fullest.

Academia Tica owns a Residence in Coronado, which is available to rent for all its students. Also in Playa Jacó the students have the choice to live in the Residence. For those who want to immerse even more in Latin American culture, the school arranges host families, so that the student can participate in real Costa Rican life.
