

Executive English and Leisure 2020

Accent International is an award-winning, fully-accredited training centre for Executives, Professionals and Corporate clients. Based at Bicton House, the 18th century former home of Lord Clinton, set in 200 hectares of parkland, five minutes from the UNESCO World Heritage Site of the Jurassic Coast and close to two National Parks, Accent International is now offering the chance to improve your Business or Specialist English and also enjoy activities in this wonderful environment.

English and Cycling

Accent is situated in Devon which has more than 150 miles of the National Cycle network in addition to coastal tracks, riverside routes, forest paths and hidden ways to explore.

English and Sailing

The UNESCO World Heritage Coast continues to the English Riviera coast and there are numerous river estuaries and harbours. Devon is perfect for the beginner or expert to sail in a classic Devon boat

English and Tennis

With a choice of hard courts or grass courts, indoor or outdoor centres, you can play tennis and take away the stress of the day or the frustrations of the English Language!

English and Horse Riding

An opportunity to ride the country lanes, hack across the moors or even just have lessons, this is a chance to see the beautiful countryside from the back of a horse.

English and Walking

Its two coastlines and two National Parks make Devon a wonderful place for walking. With walks ranging from very easy to extremely strenuous, there is something for everyone.

English and Houses & Gardens

Castles, Stately Homes, Historic Buildings and, of course, English gardens are famous all over the world -and this is a chance to discover a selection of them.
