CADIZ

Founded by the Phoenicians over 3,000 years ago, Cadiz is considered to be the oldest existing city in the western world. Due to its prime location on a peninsula-island, Cadiz has long been one of Spain's premier ports. While its famously wild Carnival celebrations have certainly put Cadiz on the map, this city's biggest draw is its laid-back, easy-going atmosphere. Great beaches, sweeping views of the sea and long, palm-lined promenades complement the town's lively bars, fantastic museums, bustling commercial activity, and jaw-dropping Cathedrals typical of any prized European city. Cadiz is in a league all of its own... it's no wonder tourists and residents alike find it so hard to leave!

"From the very first day, I felt right at home, exceeding all my expectations. I loved the great classrooms and small groups... big, light rooms create a friendly and cozy atmosphere. I miss the city, the teachers and the friends that I made in Cadiz every day!"

GRANADA

You will fall in love with Granada right away. It has an undeniable energy complete with beautiful Moorish castles, Christian cathedrals, unique homes built inside caves and hidden cobblestone streets at the foothills of the snowcapped Sierra Nevada. Francisco de la Caza, a Mexican poet, famously captured our sentiment in his quote: "Give him alms, woman, for there is nothing worse in life than to be blind in Granada." Besides its history, architecture and beauty, what truly makes Granada an ideal destination to study Spanish is the local Andalusian people, who are laid-back, friendly, warm, welcoming and always up for party. Sierra Nevada is a great ski resort and the beach is less than one hour away. Our recommendations? Go out, get lost and explore this magic city!

"Granada is a very special and welcoming city where you can walk everywhere. My favorite place, without a doubt, was the Mirador de San Nicolás (lookout), with views of the magnificent Alhambra and the city. I also won't forget how generous the bars were with their servings of tapas... I'm going home feeling so alive!"

It is a city where you can explore ancient ruins and go out for an avant-garde meal all in the same day. It has been reinvented in recent years without losing any of its history or old-world charm. From clapping your hands and swishing your skirts (or stomping your feet) along with the jaw dropping flamenco you'll see; to savoring a cup of gazpacho so bursting with flavor you wouldn't believe it's made from so few ingredients; to exploring the incredible Spanish art at the museums that fill the city; to getting your hands dirty on a hike into the beautiful surrounding hills... Malaga is a place that will exhilarate you as you learn Spanish.

"I was lucky to have been able to learn Spanish in one of the school's outside classrooms since the weather and the beaches were great. The best part of learning Spanish in Malaga is being able to interact with so many Spanish people from there. The people there are very open and friendly!
