

The image features a collage. On the left, a group of four young people (two men and two women) are smiling and looking towards the camera. They are wearing sunglasses and casual summer clothing. On the right, there is a scenic view of a beach in Nice, France, with buildings, palm trees, and the sea. The background is a mix of these two images, with a dark blue diagonal shape on the right side.

Nice, the capital of the French Riviera, is blessed with an exceptional location. Situated on the Mediterranean coast, it is close to the famous seaside resorts of Antibes, Juan-les-Pins, Cannes and Monaco. Nice is a vibrant and colourful town famous for its museums and galleries, the Promenade des Anglais and the Old Town. Here you will find the famous Cours Saleya, which is full of life, night and day, thanks to the markets, the flower stalls and the myriad of bars and restaurants that are open late into the night.

Located in the residential quartier des Musiciens rue Rossini, its central location means easy access to the tramway and buses in Nice

The school

The school was opened in 1984 by William Rubinstein, who still runs it today. The school is located in the residential Quartier des Musiciens which is a very safe and ideally located area.

- 6 minutes from the main street avenue Jean Médecin
- 5 minutes from the railway station
- 7 minutes from the seafront.

Our new 400 square metres site, spanning the first floor includes eight spacious classrooms and three extra classroms on the ground floor.

Bright, air conditioned, and all equipped with state of the art equipment, each classroom provides the perfect ambience for learning and engaging in the French language.

A large student room is available with reference books, daily newspapers, magazines and vending machines.

Our teachers

We have a dynamic team of teachers. All of them are university graduates with years of teaching experience and specialised in teaching foreign students. The ongoing development and training of teachers is a key feature of International House schools. Up-to-date methods and material are incorporated into their lessons.

Our students

Our students come from all over the world. Some of them are university students or professionals. Some learn French just for fun, whilst others come to prepare for the official DELF exams. They are between the ages of 17 and 50.

Materials

Beginners are lent textbooks and all students are given handouts. Teachers have access to a large resource centre allowing them to keep their course topical, using CDs and DVDs for listening comprehension. A folder with learning advice, information about the city, and a map will be given to the students on arrival.

Test

On the first day of class students take an oral and written test to identify their level. Once this test has been corrected, they are placed in a class that corresponds to their level. Students may change levels with the agreement of the Director of Studies if they feel that they would be better suited to another class.

Certificate

At the end of the course, students are given a certificate detailing the course taken, their attendance and the level of written and spoken French they have reached.

Levels

The courses are divided into 5 different levels - from beginner to advanced - based on the directives of the Common European Framework of Reference for languages.

No matter what your level of French is, we will always find a class that is suitable for you.

Levels

A1 Beginners Level

Students at this level can deal with simple straightforward exchanges in familiar contexts. They can usually understand enough to keep a very basic conversation going.

A2 Pre-Intermediate level

Students can understand and express information about the past, present and future. They can participate in everyday life, deal with most situations involved in travelling around a French speaking country and communicate personal information.

B1 Intermediate level

Students can comfortably interact with native speakers. They can participate in discussions and express their opinions in familiar contexts. They can describe experiences in their past as well as explain and give reasons for their plans, desires and ambitions for the future.

B2 Upper Intermediate

Students can clearly express their opinions on general topics in both spoken and written forms. They are familiar with more complex structures, have achieved a good level of fluency and communicate using broader vocabulary and idiomatic expressions.

C1 C2 Advanced level

Students are capable of understanding most lectures, discussions and debates. Students are able to develop a well structured argument and provide supporting evidence in both oral and written forms. They feel comfortable operating in social, academic and professional spheres.

Host families

Living with a French family is the best way to become familiar with the French lifestyle, to get to know French customs and to practise the language.

We have different types of host families. They may be parents with children or a couple or a single parent who takes in students because he or she enjoys company. You will encounter a warm family atmosphere where only French is spoken. There may be other students in the house, so you will also enjoy their company.

Most of the families live within a reasonable distance of the school; the maximum distance from the school is 20 minutes by bus or tram. Whilst not all homes are luxurious, they should be comfortable and hospitable.

Students are lodged in single or double rooms. Weekly laundry and cleaning is included.

You will have your own keys to come and go as you please, but you will be expected to respect some basic rules and schedules, especially for mealtimes.

The accommodation is available from 4pm on the Sunday prior to the first day of the course (Monday) until noon on the Saturday following the last day of class (Friday). Extra nights may be available on request.

Halls of residence

Our halls of residence are located in the city centre. They have a lounge with a bed, a kitchenette and a bathroom. The rooms can accommodate one or two people. The accommodation includes bed linen and blankets.

Hotels, hostels

If you prefer this type of accommodation, we can help you to make a booking and give you advice on the best options for your budget.

Social Programme

The programme of activities and excursions will help you to discover French culture, the hospitable attitude of the French and the festive atmosphere of our city. It is the ideal complement to a French course, giving you the chance to practise French in everyday situations and the opportunity to get to know other people.

Whilst Nice is renowned for being a summer destination, the ski slopes in winter, just a short distance from the city, attract tourists to Nice all year round. This is undoubtedly a great weekend activity for keen skiers!
