Teenagers and Young Learners

Closed group courses are offered throughout the year at CLC or at The Codrington School (The International School of Barbados) in the parish of St John.

These courses are tailor-made to take the needs and special interests of the group into account. Courses typically include:

- 15 hours of tuition per week
- an inclusive afternoon programme of activities and excursions
- full day weekend excursions
- airport transfers
- homestay accommodation (in shared rooms with another member of the group)

If you would like a quotation for a group, please email us with your requirements. We need to know:

- the dates that the group would like to travel
- the number of students in the group plus the number of group leaders
- the English language level(s) of the students
- the number of classes required e.g. 30 students in the group divided into 3 classes of 10 or 2 classes of 15
- the age range of the students
- specific requirements for the language part of the stay
- requests for a social programme
- accommodation requests

High School Programmes

The Codrington School is an International Baccalaureate (IB) World School which is authorized to offer all three of the IB's 'gold standard' educational programmes: the Primary Years Programme (PYP), for children generally aged three through eleven; the Middle Years Programme for students generally aged between 11 and 16; and the Diploma Programme (DP), for young people generally aged 16 through 18.

The school currently has students of 41 nationalities while well-qualified teachers come from eighteen different countries. It is an international school whose philosophy and practices model and reflect those of the IB, particularly stressing adherence by all members of the school's community to the IB's learner profile. Superior teaching enables the school to offer a liberal, progressive IB education, based on solid research and best practice from all over the world, including our host nation of Barbados.

Hotel Accommodation

The Southern Palms Beach Club is our partner hotel on the south coast.

Other nearby hotels include The Golden Sands Hotel, the Butterfly Beach Hotel, and the Sea Breeze Hotel

Airport Transfers

FREE return airport transfers are provided for all students in homestay accommodation. Hosts will take students to the airport for departure. Arrival transfers were cancelled as a result of the Covid pandemic and ensuing travel protocols.

Students in self-catering or hotel accommodation can book a transfer through Codrington Language Centre if required. The charge is USD 35.00 for a one-way transfer.

Visas for Barbados

Do you need a visa to visit Barbados? Check the official website to find out how long a visitor may stay.

We advise students to apply for a “student visa” if they are staying for longer than 3 months. Please contact Codrington Language Centre for information about this and the process involved.

Travel Protocols

A number of restrictions and regulations were put in place in response to the Covid pandemic.
