

French Language and Culture at OISE Paris
Senior Program on specific dates – 2018
(please see dates at the end of the document)

Staying in Paris and being immersed in the French culture out of the high touristic period of July is valuable and pleasant since sidewalks are easily walkable, access to exhibitions and museums is easy and staff in restaurants and hotels are relaxed and welcoming. You can enjoy! This is why OISE Paris offers this Senior Program during spring and autumn. It is composed by French lessons and visits of French teaching: 3 hours French lessons (in groups of 4 people maximum) are taught each morning, mainly focused on French culture, gastronomy, history, art, political situation. The vocabulary acquisition and its enrichment are reinforced by lots of opportunities to put into practice in the afternoon. Each person benefits from an individualized attention. Needs are permanently analyzed and fulfilled.

Entry assessment: before the course, an evaluation is done with an online questionnaire. This assessment is then completed by an oral test over the telephone with our Academic Director. Groups are constituted upon results and restructured afterward if necessary.

End of course assessment: at the end of the course, each person level is assessed according to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR). A written personalized report is supplied.

Homework: this course includes a certain amount of personal work. Teachers assist students, answer their questions, propose additional exercises where needed.

Accommodation: in a partner hotel, close to l'Institut de Français OISE à Paris, or homestay or rented apartment, OISE assists the client to find a suitable apartment.

Specific features of the immersion course: the complete immersion in a foreign country language and culture is totally justified when you want to study a new language. In addition of lessons themselves, the daily life in the country gives the opportunity to the student to practice any time. The sound and visual environments constitute a permanent stimulus and a source of knowledge. Getting familiar with a foreign country culture is part of studying its language. Some words are tightly linked to the culture and cannot be transferred to a different one. Some codes cannot be assimilated either used abroad, in a different context.

Process: when the booking is done, a confirmation is sent to the student or agent. This confirmation constitutes the contract between the student and the OISE school, it displays dates and course details. Additional information are supplied: school address, how to get to the hotel or apartment or home-stay on Sunday, schedule, etc. Upon arrival in Paris, on the Sunday, each person is individually welcomed, all details are supplied. Welcome at the school on the Monday at 8h30.
