

Course planner: from „0“ → C1 / DSH / TestDaF

Dates for „0“-beginner* courses + regular modules *

January 16; February 13; March 13; April 10; May 8; June 6; July 3+31; August 28; September 25; October 20; November 20

* If you already know some German you can practically start with a course every Monday throughout the year, except integration courses.

If you start as a „0-beginner of German“ and your goal is to enter university (which means to pass the TestDaF or DSH exam) you would have to plan on a total of approx. 40 course weeks in our „standard intensive course 25“. To reach the B1 level (= ZD exam) you would have to plan on 24 course weeks. If you have already learnt some German before naturally the course length will be appropriately shorter. In order to place you into an appropriate Germanclasswe classify you with a free of charge test and sample hours.

Exam dates B1,B2,C1

to be announced

TestDaF exams

February 14; April 26; June 14; July 19; Sept. 20; Nov. 16

Note: Please register for your exam latest 4 weeks before the chosen exam date.

* Levels according to the European language standards
 ** Levels according to Käßtner Kolleg level system
 *** Levels according to the Integration course system

1 ah = 45 mn.

