Ready to discover how far curiosity can take you?

Turning 50+ is not about slowing down. It's about embracing the dreams you may have postponed. Learning French in France is not just about grammar or vocabulary.

it's about curiosity, joy, and connection.

It's about giving yourself the gift of discovery.

Why?

THE FRENCH ESCAPADE

We didn't want to call this a "programme" or a "course." That felt too formal, too distant. What we offer is something more playful, more alive, more personal.

We call it an Escapade because it's a step outside of routine. A chance to be bold, to rediscover yourself, to laugh and learn in ways you might not have imagined.

For us, "The French Escapade" is about opening a door to language, to culture, and to a part of yourself that still craves adventure.

Ready to learn French while tasting, exploring, and connecting?

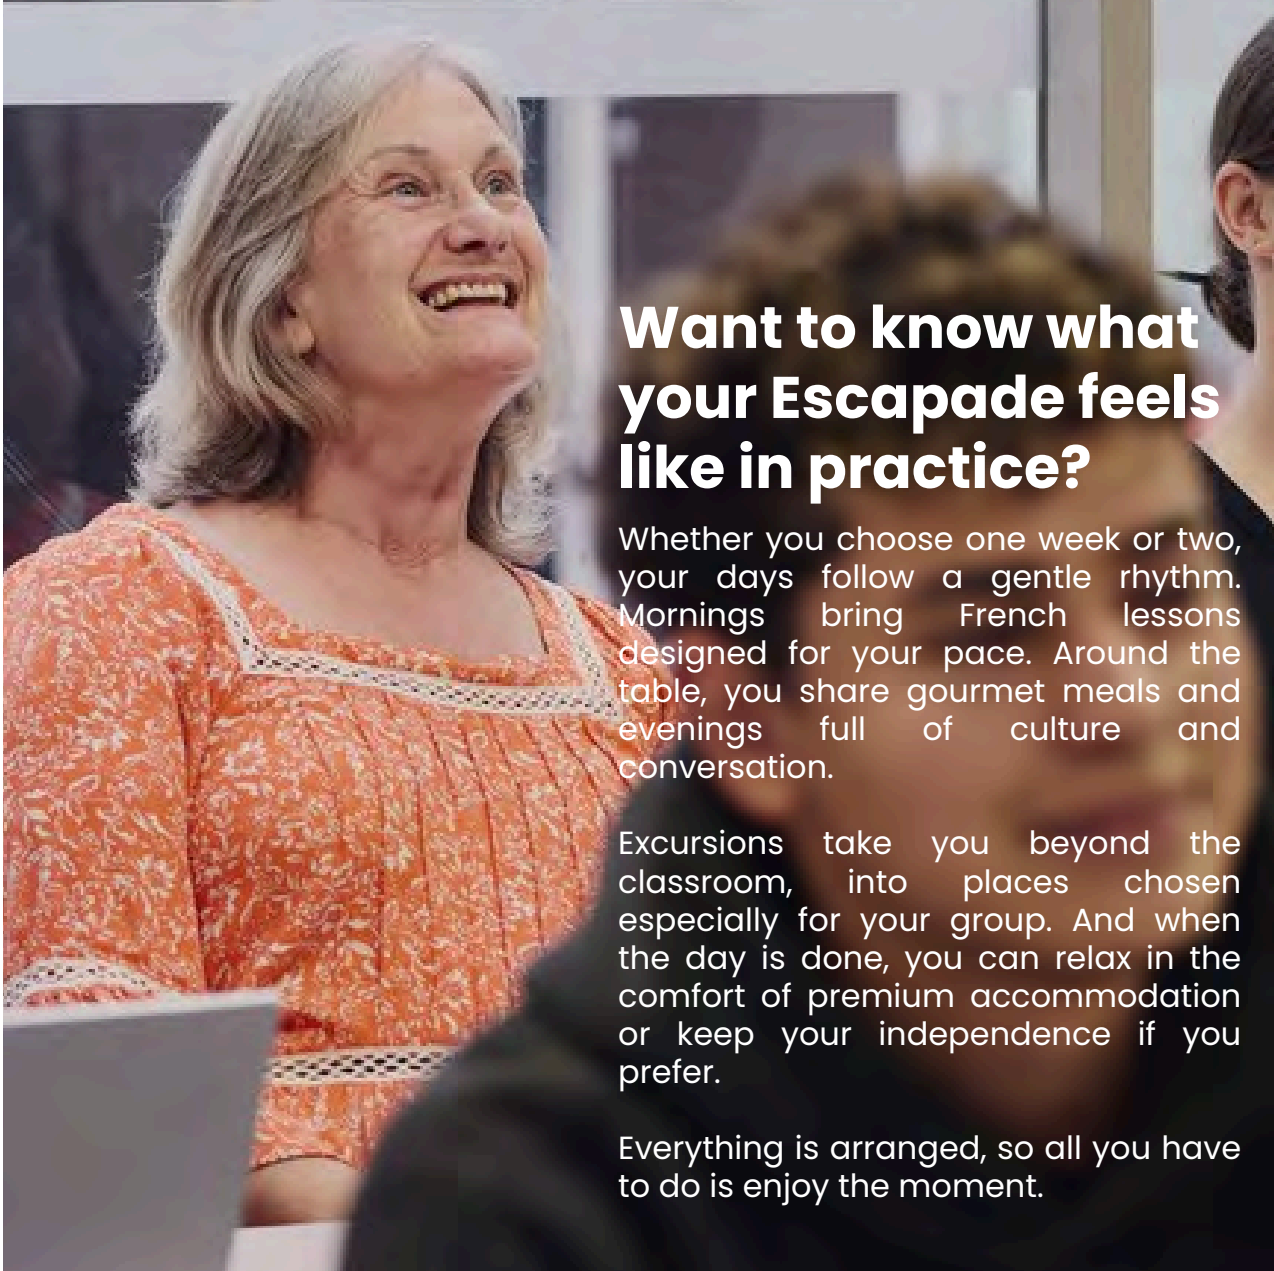

- You will learn French in a supportive and encouraging group.
- You will taste wines, cheeses, and meals that capture the French art of living.
- You will explore charming streets, landscapes, and heritage sites.
- You will connect with people who share your curiosity, your rhythm, and your love of discovery.

What will you take home besides French?

Participants often say they return home with more than language skills. They bring back renewed energy, lasting memories, and friendships that continue long after the Escapade ends.

The French Escapade is about learning French but also about discovering joy in new challenges and sharing them with others who feel the same curiosity.

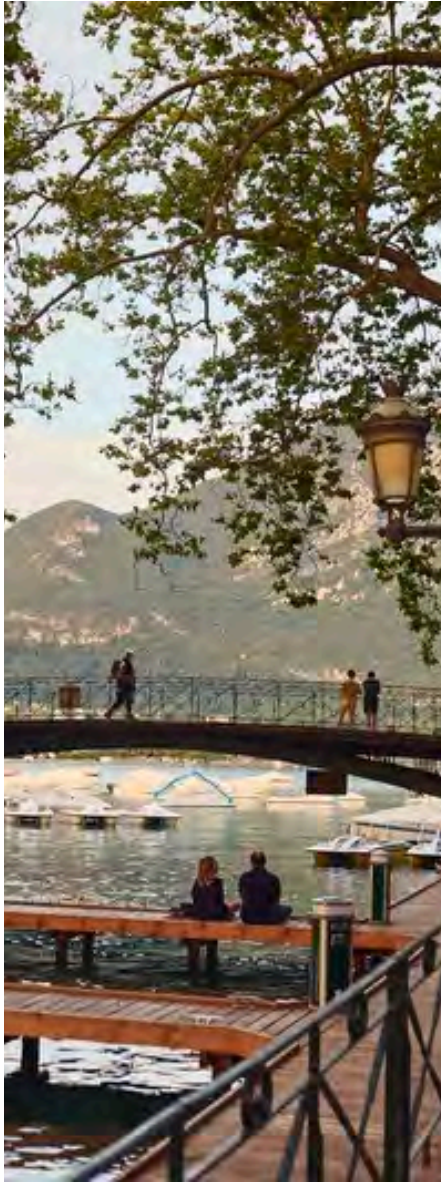

Want to know what your Escapade feels like in practice?

Whether you choose one week or two, your days follow a gentle rhythm. Mornings bring French lessons designed for your pace. Around the table, you share gourmet meals and evenings full of culture and conversation.

Excursions take you beyond the classroom, into places chosen especially for your group. And when the day is done, you can relax in the comfort of premium accommodation or keep your independence if you prefer.

Everything is arranged, so all you have to do is enjoy the moment.

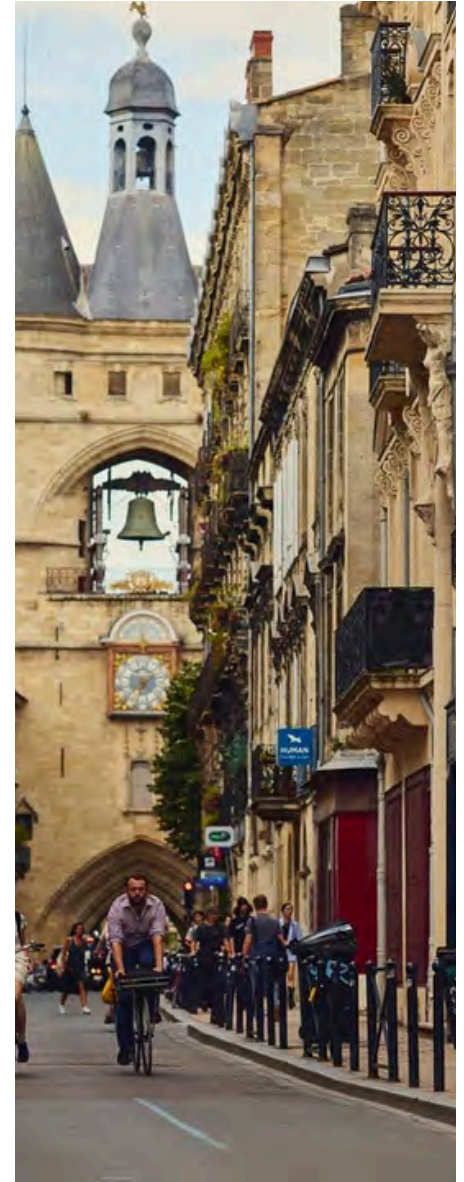

What if Annecy and Bordeaux were just the backdrop to something greater?

By the crystal lake and Alpine peaks of Annecy, you will find peace and inspiration.

In the vineyards and elegant boulevards of Bordeaux, you will feel culture.
