Menorca was declared a Biosphere Reserve by Unesco

Events and activities throughout the year and for all ages.

► SUSAN JOHNSTON - UNITED KINGDOM

"Menorca is my happy place! It offers so much history and natural beauty to explore along with vibrant cafes, restaurants and markets. There is something for everyone in this hidden jewel. Come make friends with the wonderful locals and see for yourself".

Besides all this, the island offers other activities including horse riding and trekking: you can circle the island taking the historical walking trail of Camí de Cavalls which has existed since 1330. Menorca, declared a Biosphere Reserve on October 8th in 1993, is a territory with a very rich traditional rural landscape. The island houses a remarkable diversity of Mediterranean habitats, including many exclusive species of animals and plants unique to the Island.

Lastly you will find an Island where most of its inhabitants are bilingual speaking both Spanish and Catalan, with its rich culture, and summer festivities, with people all over the world who come to enjoy!
