The communicative approach – the EC way.
- 4 OUR ASSESSMENT

We work closely with National Geographic Learning to inform the development of their teaching materials

1 OUR VISION

To help students succeed in a global community

Academically this means we work with our students to improve their communicative competence, ensuring they have the language, the confidence and the skills to interact with other English speakers from all backgrounds and capabilities. We have built our courses, our support and our schools to ensure our students are not just learning English but learning to communicate effectively.

2 OUR COURSE DEVELOPMENT

Research-based and data driven

We believe in continuous innovation and have made research a cornerstone of the ongoing process of review and development. This informs all aspects of academic management from our curriculum, to support, to teacher training. We have a very experienced team that is dedicated to developing our academic offering.

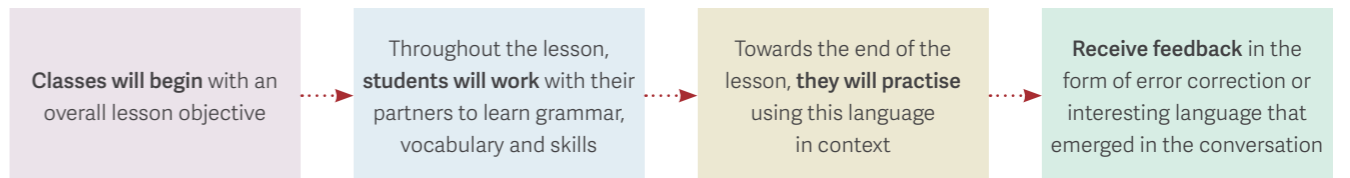

3 OUR METHODOLOGY

The communicative approach – The EC Way

We are committed to putting students at the centre of their learning and engaging them in a visible process to build their learning, cultural awareness and their language skills.

By building their learning skills, students attain a lifelong benefit, enabling them to take advantage of all learning opportunities they encounter, both in and out of the classroom, and as a result, progress more quickly

What happens in an EC classroom

We ensure our students are getting the most up to date and evidence-based teaching methodology

HOW IS EC DIFFERENT?

EC employs the Communicative Approach. However, at EC it's not about doing what works, it's about doing what works best. We believe our learners benefit from:

- Knowing what they're learning.
- Knowing why they're learning it (how it can be used in their lives outside the classroom).
- Knowing what success looks like.
- Choosing their personal levels of success.
- Knowing what they need to do better next time.

HOW DO WE ACHIEVE THIS?

- We provide real-life objectives:
 - Our objectives are written so that students can see how this lesson will impact their life outside the classroom.
 - Here's an example of a real-life objective: Be able to make a plan with others (e.g. where to eat).
 - In this example students are learning to make a plan. As this is something they do regularly, they can see how this will benefit their lives and how to put it into practice instantly.
- We provide clear aims.
- We discuss lesson aims & objectives.
- We enable our learners to choose what success looks like for them.
- We include feedback, reflection and repetition in every lesson.

4 OUR ASSESSMENT

Formative, personalised and relevant.

We believe that assessment should primarily be a formative process, a true reflection of a student's capabilities which informs them on their learning needs and successes.

Our assessments occur:

Pre-Arrival | Daily | Weekly | Monthly | At the end of the course

5 OUR CONSISTENCY

Company-wide standards and training

We ensure consistency by making sure our processes are robust and build good practice across all our centres.

To ensure consistency in learning experience and support:

- All Directors of Studies are inducted and trained in EC policies and procedures.
- All teachers receive the same induction to the Communicative Approach the EC way. They are assigned training modules based on their individual needs.
- All teachers are observed regularly.
- All our schools are committed to the continuous professional development of the academic team.
- All schools are audited once a year by a member of the senior management team.
- All schools are accredited by an external accreditation body.

6 EC PROMISE

Student's progress is visible and guaranteed

We believe in continuous innovation and have made research a cornerstone of the ongoing process of review and development. Before a student arrives, we provide guidance on setting effective learning goals, as research shows goals drive results.

Our lesson and assessment structure are both built around feedback. Our Feedback Friday provides space for reflection, review of goals and feedback.

Over the last 10 years we have been collecting data on our students' progress and we use this data to further develop our EC Promise.

We promise you will progress when

You attend 96% of your classes

You complete at least three homework assignments per week, with an average score of 9/10

You participate in lessons, with an average score of 9/10 for participation and motivation

EC has partnered with National Geographic Learning (NGL) since 2017. We chose to work with NGL not just because of their exceptional materials but because their goal, to bring the world to the classroom and the classroom to life, is so closely aligned with our own vision. Like EC, they see the importance of developing intercultural communication inside the classroom to help students succeed in the global community outside the classroom.

EC's Product Team works closely with NGL, regularly piloting or offering feedback on new materials. They often meet with the editorial teams of their titles to discuss the direction their coursebooks, meaning EC is "not just reacting to materials given but informing what those materials are" (Michael Cummings 2023).

We are incredibly proud that students and staff from EC Brighton and EC Dublin appear in NGL's Outcomes 3rd Edition, as examples of successful communicators. They appear in activities raising awareness of the wonderful variety of accents around the globe.

EC is "not just reacting to materials given but informing what those materials are."
