The Fun-Lesson Creation Course: Primary-level Teachers

It's easy to fall into the same old patterns with your lessons. Especially as the school year progresses. Finding new ways to bring new, fun activities into your class becomes harder and harder. This course is designed to refill your bag of classroom tricks with ideas and content that are proven to bring life and excitement to your classes!

This one or two-week course brings you language-development classes, so your English improves too, and practical workshops for your class. You will learn how to create new, original, highly-enjoyable materials and lesson ideas for all your teaching needs. Your students will love the new energy these will bring back to your class and you'll all feel like it's the first day of term again! A minimum language level of CEFR B1 is required for this programme.

The Energizer Master Course: Second-Level Teachers

Teaching English to teenagers can be hard work, especially as the school year wears on. Your students get more stressed with exams, other subjects and with just being teenagers. And it becomes harder and harder for you to engage them with your lessons. There are only so many creative ideas you can have before you're recycling the same activities again and again. We made this course for exactly this situation.

This one or two-week course focuses on helping you create new lessons that will re-engage and re-energies both you and your students. You'll discover effective new techniques and how to adapt them for your students. You'll also have afternoon seminars in Education and in Irish Culture. A minimum language level of Upper Intermediate (CEFR B2) is required for this programme.

CLIL Course (Secondary and Late Primary)

This one or two-week course is a practical introduction to CLIL for primary (aged 10+) and secondary teachers who are new to CLIL. The course is a mix of lectures and practical workshops and provides participants with a working knowledge of the key concepts in CLIL and a selection of practical activities for both primary and secondary level. A key element of success in CLIL is a teacher's language ability, and our two-week option includes language-development classes in our international language programmes. A minimum English language level of CEFR B2 is required for this programme.
