Passion for Football

course

Passionate about the beautiful game? Are you a football fan? You do not need to have played to enjoy this wonderful sport. What better place to share your passion than in England, the home of football. You will learn all about what makes the English so crazy about football. The journey will begin with our amateur local team in Bury St Edmunds, then you will move through the divisions to see what the lower leagues have to offer football fans. You will watch from the terraces, learn the chants, and understand what it means to be a football fan in England. Our local professional teams are Cambridge United, Ipswich Town and Norwich City. Tour the grounds and learn about how important football is to East Anglia. On the final Saturday why not stay an extra night and go to the FA Cup Final?
