Our accommodation team will go above and beyond to find the best option for you, based on your needs and preferences. Our team will advise you should you have questions on the geographical situation of the area that you will be staying at, getting to school, communicating with your host family or the owner of the apartment, living with other international students, and particularly with Spanish speakers, as well as on their traditions and customs, gastronomy, and your food preferences. The idea is to adapt everything to your daily habits, so that you feel like home.

We know every student is unique, and has a different lifestyle. Whatever your option and your destination is, you can make sure Estudio Sampere will make you feel at home!
