ENGLISH WITH WALKING

St Agnes, Cornwall

Skool is situated in the historic remnants of an old tin mine's engine house in St Agnes, a picturesque village on the north Cornwall coast, a UNESCO World Heritage site and a Designated Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. A few steps from the classroom, magnificent granite cliffs mark the edge of the land and the beginning of the wild Atlantic Ocean.

On our English with Walking course we combine learning English in the morning, with walking or hiking in the afternoon. The entire Cornish peninsula is linked by hundreds of miles of maintained coast path, which makes some of the most striking and beautiful vistas accessible to walkers.

"Skool is an extraordinary English school and Toby and Leon are great teachers. They personalise each lesson and make the time unforgettable. I enjoyed Skool and the amazing surroundings for two weeks and loved every moment. I can highly recommend it and would love to return some day." Anita, Zurich

There is no more beautiful part of the United Kingdom than Cornwall. Our school is a stone's throw from the wild Atlantic Ocean, located in the historic grounds of old mining works in St Agnes. Each afternoon we discover the landscape made famous by Rosamunde Pilcher, Poldark and most recently – Raynor Winn. We are experienced guides and hikers and we have extensive knowledge of our location.
