

Ireland is famous for hospitality and the Irish people are naturally warm & friendly. Drogheda is a small city just 45 minutes north of Dublin and just 30 minutes from the airport. An historic city, Drogheda offers a uniquely Irish experience for those looking for something different.

What are you waiting for?

- Beautiful, safe, and exciting country in Europe
- Large school in the centre of the town
- Strong curriculum and excellent teachers
- Young and vibrant city with friendly people
- Fast growing economy with lots of student jobs

Nestled between Dublin and Belfast and home to 50,000 people, Drogheda retains a lovely small-town atmosphere, yet it's packed with things to see & do. Located less than one hour from Dublin in the beautiful Boyne Valley, Drogheda is the perfect destination for students of all ages. Housed in a beautiful old stone warehouse on the waterfront in the centre of town, ELI Drogheda is just 5 minutes' walk from the main shopping and cultural areas.
